GOSPEL WAY CATECHISM – Part 6 THE PEOPLE OF GOD Question 43: What is the mission of the church??	Church Bible Reading Plan
The mission of the church is to make disciples of King Jesus by declaring the gospel, teaching the apostles' doctrine, and displaying the power of the Gospel. The church is not a club, a charity, or a source of prosperity. In the power of the Spirit, we follow and obey King Jesus for the glory of God and the good of the world. Matt. 28:18-20, 2 Cor. 5:16-21, Eph. 4, Col. 1:28-29	July: Deuteronomy + Ps. 16-30 Read the weekly 1 John passage in advance of Sunday

Quotes:

If you want to know whether you have received the Spirit, question your heart ... see if you love your brother.
~ Augustine

Has the word propitiation any place in your Christianity? In the faith of the New Testament it is central. The love of God, the taking of human form by the Son, the meaning of the cross, Christ's heavenly intercession, the way of salvation – all are to be explained in terms of it, . . . and any explanation from which the thought of propitiation is missing will be incomplete, and indeed actually misleading, by New Testament standards. ~ J. I. Packer

To be loved but not known is comforting but superficial. To be known and not loved is our greatest fear. But to be fully known and truly loved is, well, a lot like being loved by God. It is what we need more than anything. It liberates us from pretense, humbles us out of our self-righteousness, and fortifies us for any hardship life can throw at us. ~ Tim Keller

If your faith doesn't overflow into practical, messy love for real people, it isn't saving faith. Real grace always creates a new heart that bleeds for others. ~ Tim Keller

While the origin of love is in the being of God, the manifestation of love is in the coming of Christ. It is not to say that loving is one of God's many activities, but that all His activity is loving activity. If He judges, He judges in love.
~ John Stott
